International Community Contract Lewis Hall

The focus of the Lewis International Program is to provide opportunities for international and U.S students committed to becoming better acquainted across diverse cultural backgrounds in a supportive and safe environment. It was developed in the late 1980's and found it's permanent home in Lewis Hall in 1999. The community works closely with resources such as the International Program Office on campus. Students of this program have the opportunity to participate in a one-credit experiential learning course.

As a member of the International Program, I agree:

- ____(initial) To abide by all regulations as outlined in the Residence Hall Policies and the Code of Student Conduct, as well as the philosophy of the International Program.
- ____(initial) To contribute positively to the community by offering support and encouragement for the living and learning environment.
- ____(initial) To respect my floor member's different motivations for choosing this living option.
- ____(initial) To using inclusive and socially just language.
- ____(initial) To embrace and learn from cultures and experiences different from my own.
- ____(initial) To actively participate in community events including, but not limited to, floor meetings, socials, community trips and building wide programs.
- ____(initial) To have my guests abide by all of the above.

The success of the community and the fulfillment of its mission are dependent upon full participation of all members. Residence Life may ask students who violate these agreements to re-evaluate their commitment to the International program. I have read the above and understand both the goals of the International program and my responsibilities as a member of the community. I understand that non-compliance with this contract may result in my relocation to another space on campus.
